

2022 APPLICATION AND INFORMATION
CAMP RICHARDSON CORRAL

"The Corral" is a company that provides guided horseback riding for the general public. "The Corral" only hires seasonal help to work mainly from Memorial Day through Labor Day. There are some positions that might start a little earlier and end anywhere from Labor Day to possibly the first weekend in November.

Whether for one summer for many seasons, employment with Camp Richardson Corral provides a different and gratifying experience in one of the most beautiful alpine lake areas in the country. While work is demanding and the hours long, it offers the employee a unique opportunity to spend much of their summer with horses. A genuine interest and positive attitude assist "The Corral" in providing a quality experience for our guests.

EMPLOYEE REQUIREMENTS

A minimum age of 16 is required for all employees.

Various starting and ending dates may be accommodated. For us this might be due to weather conditions or snow melt. For the employee they need to discuss any scheduling preferences with our manager, Kelly Ross.

All employees must be willing to perform duties as assigned and accept changes in position as required.

Applicants should be aware that these jobs are physically demanding and require lifting, bending, standing and kneeling, as well as use of tools (power and hand tools) and exposure to the risks of being in contact and working with horses with different levels of training.

Applicants are required to participate in activities involving heavy lifting, grounds maintenance, general horse care, feeding and horseback riding.

All applicants will be required to do some light kitchen/bunkhouse cleaning, trash removal, dishes and Steak Dinner Ride cleanup etc. KP will be rotated throughout each week and listed on the schedule accordingly.

Trail Guide applicants must meet our "Essential Eligibility Criteria" weight restrictions and be physically able to ride a horse with confidence for several hours a day and excel in customer service to ensure a safe positive experience for guests and employees.

If you choose to resign from Camp Richardson Corral, you must give a two week notice and do so in person. Texting is unacceptable.

POSITIONS AVAILABLE/PAY RATE

Employees of "The Corral" are involved with all aspects of stable operation. Including, but not limited to: leading trail rides, riding horses of different levels of difficulty, all maintenance and cleaning duties associated with a stable, grooming, feeding and doctoring procedures, leading "pony" rides, saddling and unsaddling of horses, cleaning and inspecting tack and a full range of daily customer contact. All new Corral employees will undergo a paid thorough training period and probationary period before being hired on for the season. The starting pay is $14.00 per hours, typically a 10 hour work day, four days a week and possibly one 8 hour day in the same week. Time and a half is paid when hours extend over ten hours in one day or over 48 hours in a week. The pay period is from Monday thru Sunday. Pay day is every Thursday, after 4 PM.

Camp Richardson Corral is a seasonal recreational establishment. Camp Richardson Corral operates in accordance to the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). Recreational employees' exemption in the FLSA.

"The Corral" does provide lunch and some snacks. There is a refrigerator available if employees would like to bring some of their own food and beverages.

The other form of income is "tips" from the guests on the trail rides. The total income from this obviously hinges a great deal on your performance and abilities to take care of the guests and provide a safe, fun and memorable experience at Camp Richardson Corral.
